REPORT OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

Gentlemen,

The Twenty-Second Annual Report and Financial Statement of the University of New South Wales Cricket Club is presented for your approval.

Before reporting on the activities of the Club during the 1971-72 season, it is with deep regret that the Committee records the recent death of the Reverend Stan Eldred from Epping Cricket Club. Stan was well-known and respected by many Club Members, both on and off the field, and he was a Guest Speaker at our 1969-70 Annual Dinner when he so graciously proposed the "Toast to the Club". Stan will be greatly missed by all who knew him, and we extend our deepest sympathies to his family and friends.

The 1971-72 season was a most difficult one for the Club, in that we were severely affected by an unexpected drop in playing strength right from the beginning of the season. Despite this setback, we managed to retain our two crowns from the previous season, the Municipal and Shires Club Championship and the "A" Shire Premiership. When the Semi-Finals came around we were in the running for a Premiership in all three Divisions of the Competition, but our hopes of such a triumph were dashed by the resounding defeats suffered by our "B" and "C1" Shires teams in their respective matches. It is very easy to suggest reasons for these losses after the event, or to shrug them off as being all in the game of cricket, but perhaps a review of the Club's selection policies might supply the answer. Several Members have suggested that the selection of teams should be on an overall Club basis and not just team by team, and this is something which could be considered in the future.

In an endeavour to provide competition cricket for as many players as possible, the Club fielded three teams in the "C" Division Competition for the first time in 1971-72. The Thirds reached the Semi-Final, but the overall performances of the Fourths and Fifths were a little disappointing. However, the Club can be proud of the way in which these teams played the game which is, after all, more important than the actual result. The experience gained by the younger players in these teams will certainly benefit the Club in the future.

Intervarsity fixtures were played against Newcastle and Western Australia during the season. Our visitors were successful on both occasions, but we were not disgraced. The match against Newcastle was one which could have gone either way. The Club represented the University at the Intervarsity Carnival hosted by Monash in January. The team performed creditably, winning the first game against New England, but Adelaide, the eventual winners of the contest, and a very powerful Melbourne team were too strong in the other two games.

This year our social programme included a match against a team from Alexander Mackie College of Advanced Education led by our "Honorary Coach", Wilf Ewens, and it is hoped that this can become an annual event. Our games against Randwick, Burwood, Wollongong University College and the inimitable "World XI" have become "permanent fixtures", and we look forward to meeting these teams again next season. There is, however, some doubt about the "World XI" returning, since their loss this year will require a major Constitutional change if they are to play again. The inaugural Double-Wicket Competition, which replaced the Single-Wicket event, was a great success, with the winning combination being provided by Dave Wills and Jack Howe.

Mr Brian Booth proposed the "Toast to Cricket" at our Annual Dinner, held on 1st June, which was attended by fifty-two people. Mr Ted Wykes, one of a large contingent of umpires present, replied to this Toast. Eric Myatt, from Wentworthville-Blacktown, proposed the "Toast to the Club", to which Vice-President, Professor Harold Oliver, replied on behalf of the Club. Phil Schofield was this year's winner of the trophy for the best allrounder, presented by our Patron, Mr E.H. Davis. The Captain John Morris Fielding Trophy was awarded to Jock Martel, and Peter Larkin was judged the Club's Actor for 1971-72. He was presented with the Barr-Turn Trophy by its previous holder, Rodger Robertson. Mr Warren Saunders, representing the New South Wales Cricket Association, presented Premiership Trophies and Caps. A vote of thanks to our guests was proposed by Geoff Garland. The Dinner has always been the highlight of the social season, and this year was no exception.

Looking at the financial side, the Club is in a strong position. After the setback suffered last season, when we hosted the Intervarsity Carnival, we have recovered sufficiently to place $200 back into the Sports Association Trust Account and it is hoped that further deposits can be made next season. The pleasing financial situation is due, in no small way, to the endeavours of our Honorary Treasurer, Hugh Hopkins. We would also like to record our gratitude to the New South Wales Cricket Association for the grant received by the Club at the end of the season.

Attendances at Committee Meetings were generally good throughout the season, but unfortunately the support received by the Executive in the running of the Club left a lot to be desired. Too many tasks were left for someone else to do, and the late apologies received for Committee Meetings were far too many. Members who wish to serve on the Committee must be prepared to share the work, even if this requires a little bit of personal sacrifice.

Once again we extend our sincere thanks to Vice-President, Wilf Ewens, for his assistance at practices throughout the season. In particular, we are grateful to him for arranging for the use of indoor practice facilities at Alexander Mackie College when wet weather hampered our Semi-Final and Final preparations. To all those others who supported the Club during the season we say thankyou.

Having begun this report on a sad note, we must also conclude in similar vein. Our Patron, Mr Ted Davis, is retiring after many years of service to the University, and has advised that he will now be unable to accept the Patronage of the Club. His support of the Club will not cease, however, as he has indicated his desire to perpetuate his Trophy for the leading allrounder in the Club each season. In accordance with his wishes, this award will be known as the "Ted Davis Trophy". We are most grateful to Mr Davis for his generosity in perpetuating this award, and thank him for all he has done for the Club in his time as Patron. We wish him a long, healthy and happy retirement.

For and on behalf of the Management Committee,

C.H. BARRINGTON	- President
J.R. WEGNER	- Hon. Secretary

FIRST ELEVEN REPORT

Well, we won the Competition, but anyone who backed us throughout the season would have lost his shirt long before the Final. An initial loss to Lindfield was followed by five easy wins (3 outright). Decimated by unavailability against Burwood, however, momentum was lost and only one more game was won before the Semi-Finals into which we scrambled in third position on averages. Without Greig Robinson, the spearhead of our attack, and following some anaemic batting performances, prospects looked dim. A record of the Semi and Final follows, but suffice to say that every member of the team made a valuable contribution - it was a real team effort. In fact, when we experienced hard times after Christmas with the batting, the team effort in the field was exceptional with the games against Lane Cove, Bexley and Wentworthville being outstanding. No Captain could ask for more support from a team.

Opener Alec Dietsch, with 514 runs, was our leading rungetter. His determined 88 against Burwood and classic 92 in the Semi were both outstanding exhibitions of a different kind. In fact, throughout the season Alec batted with more maturity and responsibility than I have seen from him. Heaven help the bowlers if he overcomes a desire to pull half-volleys and yorkers when he is well set.

Vice-Captain Rodger Robertson, pressed into service as the other opener, had a successful season with 402 runs, highlighted by 90 before lunch against Epping. An outstanding field anywhere, Rodger snared 14 catches. Rodger's great 'eye' and free stroking style would certainly have gained him a greater personal tally at No. 5 and the team is indebted to him for his selflessness in offering to open.

Phil Heaney commenced the season at No. 3, scored his initial Club century against Roseville, got married, took Greig Robinson's place as opening bowler, saved the side several times, especially with his 76 n.o. in the Semi, and finally hit the winning run in the Final - not a bad season at all. He also won the batting average. Phil has the shots and temperament; I feel he has only to tighten up his defence to rank with any batsman to have played with the Club.

Anyone with game winning scores of 66 n.o. vs Auburn and 77 n.o. vs Pennant Hills and with 461 runs at 36 as well as 17 catches - the result of some wonderful and gutsy close (2 yards) to the wicket acrobatics - would probably be very satisfied with his performance. Jock Martel might just be a little disappointed. His batting promised so much and it was a pity to see him fall so frequently, a victim of his own reckless enthusiasm. Jock was tremendously keen for the team to do well, but if he is to realise his full potential he must learn to build an innings and make the bowler work hard for his wicket.

Joining the team in the fourth round, Club newcomer Carol Samarasekera quickly made his presence felt with elegant drives and wristy cuts. Although he was dismissed only once under double figures, Carol was indiscreet on too many occasions, losing his wicket when apparently well set. With greater concentration Carol should have a big season next year.

Following a fine fighting 58 on a wet wicket in the first round, Graeme Cole's batting fell away. His batting on wet wickets with its necessary back-foot play was at least equal to any other member of the team, but, without trying to analyse Graeme's problems, it is interesting to note that in 9 completed innings on firm wickets he was bowled on 7 occasions. It was, however, as a bowler and slip fieldsman that Graeme made his largest contribution to the team's success. Following fine early season spinning performances against Lindfield and Auburn, Graeme's long accurate spell in the Final at a crucial period heralded his arrival as a mature bowler. Leg spin bowling to Graeme has had its frustrations but I hope that with the confidence he has gained this year his bowling will really 'kick on'.

Our other genuine all-rounder was Barry Cox, who also had a rather disappointing season with the bat. Who in the team will ever forget, though, his magnificent 57 in the Semi? Every shot was hit with authority as he pounded drive and thrashed pull and hook to lay to rest, hopefully forever, the Wenty bogey. Also an excellent field anywhere, Barry's medium pace bowling was an excellent complement to the rest of the attack. His figures speak for themselves and it was a pity more opportunities could not be found for him.

Greig Robinson and George Preston formed our rather enigmatic opening attack. Greig met with well-merited success early in the season, cooled off, then really turned it on at Lane Cove with 20 overs of sustained pace bowling. His intelligent bowling was sorely missed after his departure for the outback. George, by comparison, met with little personal success early as he seemed unable to harness his swing. Missing several games in mid-season, George returned for the Semi and Final with a bang, taking 16 wickets in the two games. Reacting to the added responsibility, he swung and cut the ball while still keeping a good line to such an extent that no batsman played him with confidence.

Hugh Hopkins, in his first season as a keeper full-time did a most commendable job. His keeping to the quicker bowlers left little to be desired and while he was, on occasions, overeager with the slower bowlers I do feel he is a better keeper now with this experience behind him. It was a pity that Hughie appeared the scapegoat in the shake-up at the end of the 11th round following some shocking team batting performances and personally I am sorry that this had to happen.

Starting the season late, David Wills never really found his true batting form but when taking over the keeping at the end of the season did a creditable job. Alex Taylor, brought back to the team for the Final, played probably his most valuable innings for the Club and that is saying something, while the inimitable "Duck" justified his late season promotion with solid performances at No. 3. To all the other members who lent assistance throughout the season, the team is most grateful and offers their thanks.

In conclusion I would like to thank the team for their support and assistance throughout the season especially the senior pros, Rodger and Alec, who frequently had to cope with a nervous leader, Hugh who did so much to "water" the team, and finally the two Mrs Robertsons and Mrs Garland for the consistently delightful afternoon teas.

The Semi-Final.

Sent in, everybody got a start until we reached 7-127, when Cox (57) joined Heaney (76 n.o.) and together they took advantage of the early grind to flay the Wenty attack for 118 runs in 85 minutes. Preston (21) blazed briefly but later struck three more important blows to send Wenty to stumps at 3-35. Next day Heaney and Preston struck again and with Garland taking wickets with successive balls Wenty were history at 7-83, but they scrambled to 143. Dietsch (92) completely dominated the second innings as he demolished the Wenty bowling and fieldsmen (literally), and the game eventually fizzled out as Wenty failed in their attempt to score the 369 runs set them in 100 minutes.

The Final.

On a soft though dead wicket, Heaney and Cox took advantage of early Lindfield nerves - 4-32 after 80 minutes. In trouble at lunch (6-77), Lindfield hit out and aided by some atrocious fielding totalled 160. Spinners Garland (3-32) and Cole (2-40) were the most successful, the latter suffering most from the dropsy. Taylor (44) dropped anchor and with Whalan (17) and Samarasekera (30) guided University to 5-126 at stumps. Wills and Garland added a circumspect 23 and at one stage we were 6-157 and everyone knew the game was won. At 9-158 no-one was quite so sure. Heaney, however, had saved a very special on-drive. Determined to chase runs quickly, Lindfield tried to force the pace before they became set. Relishing the situation, Preston was absolutely devastating and at lunch the score was 6-14 (Preston 5-3). Lindfield battled on in a lost cause to score 59 and, with a welcome absence of trauma, Dietsch and Taylor made short work of the necessary 51 runs - a most pleasing result.

SECOND ELEVEN REPORT

In a most remarkable 1971-72 season, the Second XI produced many outstanding efforts resulting mainly in convincing wins. For the majority of games the superiority of the team was never in doubt. However, all chances of regaining the Premiership were lost in the last two games, particularly the Semi-Final when the occasion proved to be a bit too much out of the ordinary for our batsmen. On the other hand, the mere fact of gaining points in every game bar one was instrumental in the Club's retention of the Club Championship.

The team's batting performances reached the satisfying stage where a score of 200 was thought a foregone conclusion. Phil Smith started the season in devastating fashion with two great centuries in the first five games. Early in the season he was well supported by Peter Whalan who settled into the number 3 position quite readily. New opener, Owen Henry, coming into the side for the third game, soon showed he would be full of runs. This was quickly realised when he scored a beautiful century against Burwood. Alex Taylor came good after a tentative start and was back to his previous season form in the latter half of fixtures. Peter Wichkam produced valuable runs towards the end of the season to help the side out of occasional trouble. The side was often aided by others passing through, notably Dave Wills and Carol Samarasekera adding a touch of class to the batting line-up. Zoran Pirjevec and Peter Street also provided valuable assistance on odd occasions while Jim Dormon and Alan Thomas provided staunch support for the more aggressive batsmen of the team.

The batting generally was the so-called strong point of the team with the 200 mark being reached on 8 occasions. During the full season the team was totally dismissed in only 4 innings, two of these in the only outright loss of the season. This loss was the only real sore point of the season and all one can say is that it was unfortunate to occur in the Semi-Final. The team, after going to a first innings lead, was dismissed for the amazing total of 39 runs in the second innings, undoubtedly the most disastrous effort for many years.

In the bowling department, 106 of the 150 opposition wickets to fall went at the hands of five bowlers. However, these five were never destined to play in the same team and at times the bowling tended to lack the required penetration to dismiss teams quickly. Peter Wickham and Bob Turner provided a very capable spin attack which was not mastered at any time during the season. Ian Webb, Rick Edwards and Rob Howard constituted a reliable new ball attack which at times demoralised opposing teams. It is very hard to gauge the performance of other bowlers as so many were in the team for only two or three games. However, when called on, all gave their best which was more than adequate.

The fielding was a definite "hot and cold" facet of the team's play. Phil Smith and Owen Henry were outstanding on their day, while all others occasionally showed unaccustomed brilliance. Peter Whalan, who kept for most of the season, could be deemed the most unluckiest wicket-keeper as so many apparent dismissals were not allowed.

During the season some 33 players participated in 13 games. Considering only two games were lost, one realises how the new and old members combined into a reliable and successful combination. In my time as Captain of the team, I was indeed grateful for the way in which everyone applied themselves to the task. Bob Turner, as Vice, was invaluable with his assistance and experience, as was Alex Taylor.

Well, the Club Championship is ours for the 7th time in the past 8 years. What about the "B" Shire Premiership? I would think that to achieve this goal the selection of the top teams should be finalised by the time the semi-finals are at hand. No, or very few, changes should have to be made between teams. Once teams have reached a stability in selection every effort should be made to keep them this way. This gives all teams time to develop some teamwork and purpose of individuals. The time will come when the "B" team is successful and I think the team in the 1971-72 season has laid the foundation for future successes.

My congratulations go to the First Eleven for their well earned success in the "A" Shire Premiership and I hope the Club continues with the same success and spirit under which I was fortunate to play.

PETER WICKHAM

The Semi-Final.

The Semi-Final against Wentworthville was a very disappointing game. University lost the toss and were sent in to bat and, not being sure of how the wicket might behave, we were a little apprehensive of what was to come. We started slowly but were soon in our stride, losing our first wicket at 43; by lunch the score had reached 1-96 (Owen Henry 55), having lost forty minutes through rain. Our sights were set on a big score, but this was not to be, the next two wickets falling at 100. This was to be the end of our batting strength, the last eight batsmen adding only 73 runs; still we had the runs on the board.

The opposition made a careful start to their innings but were soon in trouble. We were soon on top (4-15). Our bowling, being very tight, was to be the strength of the team. At stumps on the first day, Wentworthville's score was 8-114.

On the second day we were to dismiss the opposition for an additional 10 runs - the time 10.15 a.m. We were now in the box seat with a lead of 49, thinking that 150 additional runs would see us safe. Then disaster struck - our first three batsmen were out for 15..... A procession of batsmen then started; hardly had a player padded up than he was needed at the crease - the walk to the wicket, a short stay, and a long way back to the pavilion. At 12.10 p.m. it was all over - the last man was dismissed for a total of 39. This left the opposition only 90 runs to score for outright victory. (It took 95 minutes). The bowlers again, aided by some good fielding, did a fine job in taking 5 wickets before we were overhauled. Another 60 runs would, I am sure, have given us victory.

In concluding this report, I would like to request that future selection committees give more thought to balance in teams playing the Semi-Finals. This year the First XI had nine recognised batsmen (two of whom were promoted from the Second XI), and seven capable bowlers, plus two wicket-keepers. The First XI wicket-keeper for eleven games was dropped to the Second XI for the Semi-Final (?). If more consideration was given to selection of all teams, perhaps it would be possible for the Club to qualify in all three grades in future years.

Fortunately, we were able to gain enough points from the game to help secure the Club Championship.

THIRD ELEVEN REPORT

The 1971-72 season was by far the best season for the 'C1' Shires team, but still the Premiership eludes us. Comparing the season's statistics with our previous best a marked improvement is evident yet we finished third out of 14 with only one team (Auburn-Lidcombe) defeating us all season.

	1969-70	1971-72
Points	80 (15 rounds)	76 (13 rounds)
Runs for	2707	2418
Wickets lost	129	144
Average	21.0	16.8
Runs against	2978	2424
Wickets taken	221	197
Average	13.5	12.3

There has been a general increase in the standard of 'C' Shires although the gap between the top and bottom teams is widening.

The season, whilst losing continuity through the too large a break over Christmas, was enjoyable and I take this opportunity in congratulating Macquarie University on their Premiership win. It will be noted with interest whether Macquarie University can emulate past 'C' Shires Premiers in the higher grades for which they are well equipped.

How then to win the elusive 'C' Shires? We must improve:

1. Fielding
 2. Opening partnerships
 3. Opening attack
- and 4. Stabilize our whole batting.

With more stability in teams and a little luck we may yet win a 'C' Shires Premiership.

The Third Eleven were indeed fortunate in having one of the best wicket-keepers in 'C' Shires and probably one of the best in M. & S. cricket. Clem Barrington set a new record for the Third Eleven which I feel will stand for some time.

The main strength of the Third Eleven was its bowling and in particular the slow, flight, spin attack. Phil Schofield again, through experience and guile, obtained a well-deserved bag of wickets (48). In our class of cricket a thinking, slow bowler will always take many wickets. Phil gave us all a lesson in controlled slow bowling. In Ralph Merrell I feel we have an able replacement. It is only hoped that Ralph will play a full season as his three games for 15 wickets suggest he will have great success.

The only real success in the batting was Jeff Cutler but, as with the other batsmen, he was not consistent throughout the season. Too often the tail was asked to get the necessary runs. Given a full season and practice this may be remedied next year.

In Frank Lord the Club has acquired a very useful all-rounder who has yet to show all his potential.

I would like to thank Phil Schofield and Clem Barrington for their help throughout the season and especially Phil for deputising for me in two rounds, one of which was a great win over Macquarie University (Premiers).

As usual one can not name all the outstanding performances or players, but I thank all the members of the Third Eleven for their support and great team spirit making this a most enjoyable season. This was the finest team, in both ability and spirit, I have played with and I look forward to next season playing with an equal team - to a Premiership.

(R) Record

FOURTH ELEVEN REPORT

There were three distinct parts to the 1971-72 season as far as the Fourths were concerned. There was the gradual building in the first four rounds of what would have been a most effective unit, followed by the mid-season slump when the composition of the team for each game was anybody's guess, with the last four games producing a team which, with a little luck, would have provided a close contest for most of the sides in the competition. The record claimed by Tom Downes in his report last season fell to this year's team - no fewer than 46 different players turned out for the Fourths, and not one player managed to stay in the side for the 13 games. Even the Captain was called up for duty in the Thirds for one match.

Four other records were set by the side during the season. A record low of 33 runs in our first innings against the strong Macquarie University side heralded the slump referred to previously. In his only appearance with the side, Bill Read took 8 wickets in an innings against Lane Cove to equal the best bowling performance for the Fourth XI in the team's seven years of competitive cricket. David Stockley gained a well-deserved record with a bowling average of 9.1 runs per wicket. Had he been allowed to stay in the team for the season I feel sure that he would have exceeded the record aggregate of 38 wickets as well. As it was, he took 28 wickets in 8 games, capturing his 100th wicket for the Club in the last match of the season. It was unfortunate that he was unable to display his talents to their fullest extent when he gained promotion to the Thirds. Not to be left out, the Captain, by judicious field-placing, managed to bag for himself a record number of catches for the season. It should be noted that this is about all the Captain did, as he failed miserably with the bat and experienced considerable difficulty in bowling more than three or four overs at a time when he was allowed to bowl by the rest of the team.

At no stage of the season did the team have a regular opening attack. Alan Goodwin shouldered the responsibility well when he joined the team half-way through the season, but it is perhaps best not to reveal the identity of his partner, who aided and abetted him only to a small extent.

Geoff Borny picked up 12 wickets in the last five matches, and was a most reliable first-change bowler. "Veteran" Stan Livingstone, after a trip overseas, showed that he is still a force to contend with by picking up 9 wickets in the last three games. Had these two been able to play the full season along with Alan Goodwin and Dave Stockley, the bowling attack would have been capable of surprising most opposition teams.

Apart from John Barford, the batting was suspect for virtually the whole season. John's efforts would have been even more valuable to the team and the Club had he been allowed to stay in the one side. He found himself moving freely between the three "C" Shires teams, and this must have had its effect on his performances. As a wicket-keeper John's keenness and enthusiasm could not be beaten, although at times he found himself using the pads instead of the gloves. Here again, a lack of continuity as a keeper had its effect. Ron McInnes, the other keeper, started the season well, and two good innings saw him promoted to the Thirds. However, his form fell away, and he struggled hard with the bat without success for the rest of the season. Towards the end of the season Jack Howe, Geoff Borny, Stan Livingstone and Dick Burgess were the main hopes with the bat, and the team passed the 200 mark for the first time in the last game against the Fifths. Contributions by Harold Oliver are gratefully acknowledged and it is my hope that he can be talked into playing a full season with us in 1972-73.

Mention should also be made of the remarkable improvement in the field shown by John Sindel. John showed us all that being fit is the first requirement in this department. Numerous others gave support with bat and ball at odd times during the year, and the team is grateful for their assistance.

To Dave Stockley, my Vice-Captain for most of the season, and to Geoff Borny, who stood in when Dave was in the Thirds - thankyou for your words of wisdom and encouragement. If the team which finished the season with so much promise could be kept together for the coming season it would certainly be a pleasure to be in that side.

FIFTH ELEVEN REPORT

This year the shaggy Fifths entered the "C" Shires Competition for the first time and during the season seemed long on everything except scores. Long delays in starting, long handles, and long hair were the glorious order of the day. The team suffered from two changes of captaincy during the season, the first from Fraser Airsworth, under whose experienced hands the only victory was obtained, to John Barford (briefly), and from him to Boyd Fowler. Performances during the Christmas break were depressed by a lack of players, and often those picked failed to show. Stalwarts of the team were Fraser Ainsworth, Boyd Fowler, Alan Goodwin, Peter Nicholls, John Prouzos, John Sindel and Noel Skippen, with special appearances upon urgent request by members of colleges when numbers were down. The cricket played often showed glimpses of "C" Shire standard and hopes for improved results next season are good. However, more players are needed, with more practice and experience.

Following is a brief account of the saga.

In the first match (apart from trials against lower grade teams such as the Thirds), U.N.S.W. played Burwood. Only Fowler (15) provided resistance to a strong Burwood attack in the first innings. Burwood scored 3-152(dec.) and then confidently began bowling against seemingly brittle batting with 4 hours in hand. However, defiant batting by Skippen (22), Ainsworth (15), Pidgeon (15) and Butterworth especially (34) saw the day end with U.N.S.W. 9 down for 122. This was our finest day.

Against Lane Cove a week later Menton scored 49 well-compiled runs and Skippen notched 26. Coady was already showing signs of long handled promise. Lane Cove blasted their way to 6 for 233 and U.N.S.W. replied with 124, which obviously was not good enough. Menton again came good with 67 runs.

Canterbury as usual played it tough. Goodwin and Kesby batted well to score 32 and 22, respectively. The team ended up with 141 in the first innings. Led by that inimitable guy Barry, Canterbury replied with 195. Brian Clarke bowled consistently well to take 5 for 51. Kesby picked up a swashbuckling 41 in the second innings and and Skippem as opener got 29. The youthful Canterbury team then knocked up the necessary 57 to win, but only after great bowling by Clarke (3-25) and Midshipman Tom Steward (4-37) had given them some anxious moments.

The team's big win of the season was in the next match against Epping in which Kesby again starred with 28 runs and 6 wickets for 49. Hurst played some fine strokes in his 52 as U.N.S.W. scored 114 in the first innings. Epping replied with 66. U.N.S.W. then dramatically collapsed for 24 (!), but scraped home with a victory when Epping could manage no more than 63 in their second innings. Kesby bettered his first innings performance by taking 7 for 19.

Since most of the following matches resulted in lucky outright victories for the opposition, it is probably only worth recording notable U.N.S.W. performances. They were as follows:

Alan Goodwin's 3 for 24 against Auburn-Lidcombe;
Tony Bailey's 23 against Canterbury;
Geoff Borney's 4 for 19 in the same match;
Peter Nicholls' 21 against Epping;
Fitzgerald's 0 for 65 against Wentworthville-
Blacktown;
Fowler's 28 and Hure's 52 in the same match;
Schofield's 3 for 8 against Canterbury;
Fitzgerald's 3 runs in the same match.

The season had an exciting finish as the Fifths were drawn to play the Fourths. They scraped up 216 runs for 8 wickets while the Fifths posted 104 and were 6-76 with 4 balls bowled in the last over. A wicket fell on the fifth ball, leaving 3 wickets to be captured in 3 balls. Excitement around the ground was high, but after the sixth ball the Fifths began to pack the kit. Tension on the field was still high, the Fourths not realising that their hopes of an outright were being stored with the gear until next season.

In conclusion, may we wish all grades good luck for the coming season.

INTERVARSITY

UNIVERSITY OF NEW SOUTH WALES vs UNIVERSITY OF NEWCASTLE

(December 12-13, 1971, at Village Green)

University of N.S.W. batted first on a perfect pitch and were reasonably well placed at 1-98 at lunch. However, with the quick dismissal of the two not-out batsmen - Whalan and Thomas - the situation quickly deteriorated and Uni. of N.S.W. were 5-135. Only Street (27) and Wegner (13) offered any further resistance and we were all out for 180.

Newcastle began their innings well, putting on 50 before the loss of a wicket, when a fine spell of bowling by Robinson and Stabback had them 4-81. A good 5th wicket partnership of 79 between Baker and Campbell rescued Newcastle and put them solidly on the road to victory. Once Baker (65) - who toured New Zealand with the Combined Australian Universities side - and Campbell (30) went, Preston and Wright quickly cleaned up the tail and Newcastle were all out for 197.

We were still very much in the game and good innings by Whalan (37) and Samerasekera (49) allowed Skipper Robinson to declare at 8-159. This left Newcastle a target of seven runs an over to win outright.

Newcastle accepted the challenge and just managed to scrape in for an exciting victory. The winning run was scored in the second last over, University of N.S.W. at that stage requiring only two more wickets to win. A feature of this innings was Preston's fine bowling to finish with the figures of 5-58.

In conclusion, a most enjoyable game, one that could have gone either way.

Perhaps some mention should be made of "Slugger" Fitzgerald's efforts in upholding 'Laura Norda' in the outfield by quickly disposing of any stray spectators - Norman the Foreman would have been proud of him. Also, Godfrey's fascinating accounts of various shapely-bottomed youths, at the barbecue on Sunday night, had Animal, Okker, and Stabback spellbound.

UNI. OF NEW SOUTH WALES vs UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA
(January 20-21, 1972, at Village Green)

W.A. batted first and thanks to some fine bowling by our Captain, Greig Robinson, they were quickly in trouble at 3-29. However, a century partnership by Nicholls and Charlesworth halted the rampaging Robinson and put W.A. in a strong position. Nicholls was eventually run out and, except for Panegyres, little further resistance was offered by the later batsmen, and W.A. were dismissed for 227. Of this total, over half (116) was contributed by Rick Charlesworth. His was a chanceless innings and he batted throughout the entire W.A. innings to remain not out.

U.N.S.W. started disastrously, Thomas going for a duck - hooking? The stroke was strongly reminiscent of some senior Australian batsmen facing John Snow's bouncer. Although four batsmen reached the twenties, none could carry on with the job and U.N.S.W. were dismissed for 157.

W.A. batted again and declared at 1-96, Charlesworth again being not out with 47. Thomas then successfully completed his pair with the first ball he received and U.N.S.W. were 1-6. Apart from "Animal" (A. Wright in his U.N.S.W. disguise), no batsman reached double figures and we were in trouble at 6-48.

It was left to our redoubtable and courageous Captain to save the side from ignominious defeat. His forward defensive stretch had never worked better and he was still there at stumps, defiantly unconquered.

INTERVARSITY CARNIVAL

Monash University were this year's hosts for the Carnival, and as we flew out of Sydney after more than a week of rain another washout seemed a distinct possibility. However, we were very pleasantly surprised. The weather throughout the Carnival was ideal.

Having developed a taste for Melbourne ale during the flight down, we were soon on the job on Sunday night, although it was a fairly quiet evening as evidenced by the 100 percent turnout for breakfast the following day.

We were drawn to play New England in the first match. New England won the toss and batted, and quick breakthroughs by Greig Robinson and Rob Howard had them 3-25. However, a recovery was staged with a magnificent partnership between O'Neill (87) and Onus (59), who took the score to 153. We captured one more wicket before the end of the 40 overs, and were left with a target of 190. Robinson and Howard each took two wickets.

Our first wicket fell early, but Peter Burnett and Alan Wright set the innings on the right course with 29 and 31, respectively, although at 4-77 the outlook was not too bright. Barry Cox joined Peter Whalan and this pair, batting cautiously, carried the score to 131 before Barry (27) was dismissed. When the seventh wicket fell at 157 Paddy Grattan-Smith strode to the crease and proceeded to compile an unbeaten 22 to set us on the victory path. At the other end, the "Duck" was patiently picking up run by run, including a session of 16 successive singles. Tension was mounting as we slowly approached the target, with time running out. Seven runs were needed in the last two overs. Five came in the first of these. The determined "Duck" faced the last over and despite constant reminders from the rest of the team he did not seem to realise that victory was so close. However, he was just waiting for the right ball - number 8. This he despatched backward of point for three to bring us victory and earn himself a well-deserved 50 not out.

The barbecue at Monash that night was an ideal forum for the celebrations which followed our win. The beer flowed freely, and attempts were made to woo the nurses present, many of whom also appeared to flow quite freely. Attendance at breakfast the next morning was again good, but the strain was beginning to show on some faces.

We batted first in the second game against Adelaide, but we were never really in it. The side collapsed to be 6-44, with "Animal" Wright (20) the only batsman to get a start. It was left to the skipper (24), with his far-reaching forward thrust, to give the innings an air of respectability. He was ably assisted by Bill Read before he successfully ran him out with 100 on the board. We reached 108 off 37 overs. Adelaide had no trouble in passing our score, losing only two wickets in doing so. Bullock, the opener, contributed 55 not out.

Tuesday night was a "free" night. The team discovered an underground bar at "The George" and settled in for the night. A rousing rendition of the National Anthem at closing time had the patrons calling for more, but it was time to catch the floor-show upstairs. Les and her friends provided most of the entertainment at the table next to ours, while the waitresses kept us satisfied with a never-ending supply of jugs. The breakfast ranks thinned a little the next day.

In the final match against the strong Melbourne side we were well and truly beaten. Skipper Robinson conveniently had a recurrence of a leg injury and handed the responsibility to Jock Martel. The bowlers tried hard, but all the batsmen got going and Melbourne reached 5-304 in the 40 overs. The team took up the challenge, but were soon in trouble at 2-24. Ian Bray contributed a handy 21, but our hopes depended on the Animal and Strapper. They went about the task in a most enterprising manner, until Jock (33) was caught and bowled by Higgs with the score at 104. Alan Wright (36) soon followed, and apart from a last-ditch effort by John Barford and Bill Read who had some good batting practice, Paddy Grattan-Smith with 31 was the only other ray of hope. We were all out in the 40th over for 186.

Another barbecue at Monash and more Melbourne beer were an ideal way to relax in preparation for the gruelling day ahead - watching the Final. Experience was beginning to show by now, and breakfast on Thursday morning was attended by only half the team. It was not altogether clear which half this was.

While the Final between Adelaide and Western Australia was in progress, the Manager led an eight man team in an eight over challenge match against Tasmania. We proved our superiority and staying power with an effortless win, although the Manager's contributions to this victory were considered negligible despite the fact that he took two wickets bowling right arm under the wicket. In the Final,

Western Australia reached 162 all out in the last over, and Adelaide, sensing victory, methodically gained the required runs with the loss of 5 wickets and three overs to spare.

The Carnival was a tremendous success, and our thanks go to our hosts, Monash, for the wonderful hospitality they accorded us. Congratulations to Adelaide on their victory.

This report would not be complete without brief mention of the activities of the final night. Our Captain, on his last night of Intervarsity, made a project of destroying himself. Even Animal succumbed and had a few sips, but the award for the most improved performer must go to J.B. Proof of his value to the team lay in his swift left-foot kick. Youngster, Rob Howard, was host for the festivities, and he even supplied the toothpaste which Okka so lovingly rubbed into the Manager's hair. Jock Martel went to bed. So did the Daughters of Zeus. The beer ran out at 5.30 a.m. and those who were still standing staggered off to grab a few hours sleep in the hope that they could face the day ahead of them. Only the Manager, Captain, Vice-Captain and Mascot (Animal) were seen at the breakfast table shortly afterwards, providing positive proof that experience, or abstention, or an early night are the main requirements for survival on an Intervarsity trip. Rob Howard emerged from under a pile of beer cans just in time to join the team for lunch, and more beer.....

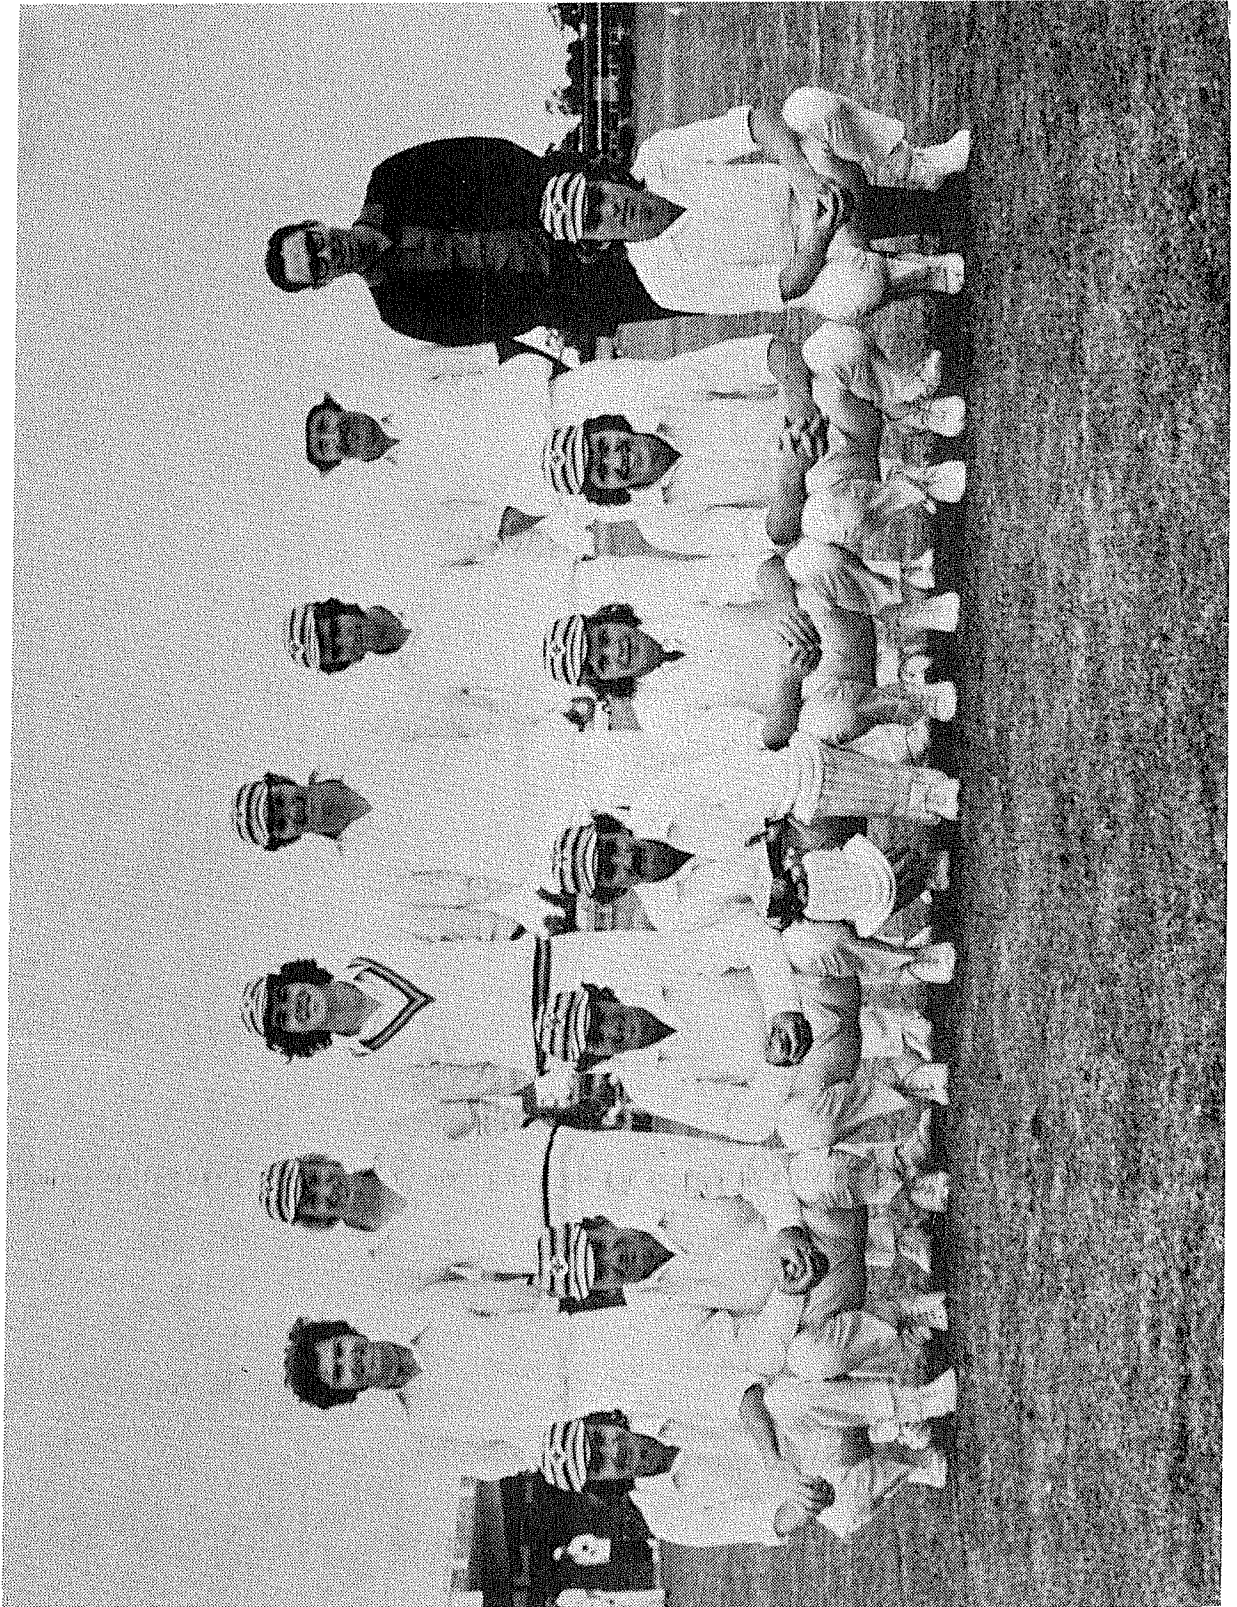

Finally, I would like to record my thanks to each member of the team for making my job such an easy one.

A sample of what the team looked like at the beginning of the Carnival may be obtained by turning the page. The following guide may be of assistance in identifying those who, even at this stage, were almost unrecognisable.

SOCIAL MATCHES

U.N.S.W.C.C. vs RANDWICK D.C.C. (Village Green, 19-9-71)

Winning the toss, Randwick began confidently against Preston and Heaney on a placid pitch. At 2-93, when Wickham dismissed Cripps, Randwick were well placed, but after lunch they found it difficult to force the pace against the accurate Preston. Thwarted by Preston, the batsmen turned their kamikaze tendencies towards the gentle slows of Garland. Randwick declared at 9-130.

Losing Robertson early, Dietsch and Heaney worked hard to establish the innings. With his hook working well Dietsch caused the spinners to make an early appearance. Heaney soon had his drive working and when Dietsch left 75 had been added. Apart from Carol Samarasekera, with a graceful 23 in his initial Club innings, the batting folded in shocking fashion to finish at 126, just 4 runs short. It was frightening to see the attempts of the middle and late order batsmen to combat accurate slow bowling and it certainly did not augur well for the future.

RANDWICK 9-130(dec) (A. Cripps 34, P. Corcoran 29, A. Wright 24, J. Johnson 21; G. Garland 8-23) defeated U.N.S.W. 126 (A. Dietsch 40, P. Heaney 32, C. Samarasekera 23; J. Crawley 8-35).

U.N.S.W.C.C. vs RANDWICK D.C.C. (Coogee Oval, 20-2-72)

Sent in to bat in the return match, University had a most enjoyable day. Robertson played himself back into a little form while Peter Whalan dug in. Whalan and Heaney came together before lunch at 5-74 and after a pleasant watering at the Rugby Club returned to play the attack as the bloated field looked on - the result, 6-161. Five minutes later a storm washed the Coogee wicket away and Uni. were not called on to display their fielding wares.

We would like to thank Randwick for their hospitality on this most enjoyable day.

U.N.S.W. 6-161(dec) (P. Whalan 53, P. Heaney 37*, R. Robertson 24) drew with RANDWICK.

Geoff Garland

U.N.S.W.C.C. vs BURWOOD C.C. (David Phillips, 19-9-71)

Burwood won the toss in our annual pre-season clash and Uni. were sent in to bat. After six overs both openers had departed with the score at 11, and when the third wicket fell at 35 we were in a little bit of trouble. Tony Epstein then grafted an innings of 45 (21 singles) to lead the side to a recovery. He received valuable assistance from Barry Wenke and Peter Street, who both reached the twenties, and the score mounted steadily until the declaration at 8-165. For Burwood, Michael Sterry shone with the ball, taking 5 for 48 off 17 overs.

The Burwood innings began brightly after lunch and they reached 33 before Wenke claimed his first victim. He then took three wickets in his next over and Uni. were right on top. At 6-52 an early finish seemed likely, but the tail held out until Street took the ball. He captured three wickets in three overs, Burwood were all out for 105, and we had avenged our defeat of the previous season. Jeff Jarrett provided the most resistance with a fighting innings of 28.

U.N.S.W. 8-165(dec) (A. Epstein 45, P. Street 25(ret.), B. Wenke 23; M. Sterry 5-48) defeated BURWOOD 105 (J. Jarrett 28; B. Wenke 4-43, P. Street 3-5).

Wrepus

U.N.S.W.C.C. vs ALEXANDER MACKIE C.A.E.

(Village Green, 24-10-71)

In a most enjoyable game, the Uni. XI took on our Honorary Coach's XI in a test of strength. We batted first and, in typical fashion, found ourselves 2-23. Whalan and Martel then set about restoring our prestige and took the score to 97 before Whalan lost his wicket. At lunch we were in a comfortable position at 3-118. Graham Cole had too much to eat for lunch and was run out immediately after the resumption. Wickham joined Martel, and these two played the bowling to take the score to 4-214 in an unbeaten 95 run stand. Jock Martel, perhaps a little selfishly, returned a fine, unconquered century.

The Alexander Mackie innings began even more disastrously than Uni's, with both openers dismissed in the first two overs. At 4-52, Todd joined Wilf Ewens and this pair added 59 before Cole intervened and Ewens left with an apparently effortless 50. Todd was most defiant, and the combined skills of Garland, Wickham and Cole could not remove him. Finally, in desperation, Garland threw the ball to Wegner. Completely deceived by pace (or lack of it), Todd had his middle stump knocked back by Wegner's first ball. To the amazement of all, particularly Yorke Marshall who was umpiring, Wegner hit the middle stump again with his sixth ball - another straight one. An unsuccessful second over saw Wegner replaced by Dormon, who had immediate success and was then taken off. The skipper's embarrassment was quite noticeable as these two demon bowlers were quietly retired to the outfield. Another 25 runs were added by the last pair before Wickham gained an l.b.w. decision and the innings closed at 171.

U.F.S.W. 4-214(dec) (J. Martel 101*, P. Wickham 41*, P. Whalan 37) defeated ALEXANDER MACKIE 171 (W. Ewens 50, P. Todd 37, C. Cox 22*; R. Wegner 2-5, R. Howard 2-28, G. Cole 2-33).

U.N.S.W.C.C. vs WOLLONGONG UNIVERSITY COLLEGE C.C.
(Village Green, 9-1-72)

A formidable UNSW side took on Wollongong in Sydney on 9th January. Uni. won the toss and sent "The Gong" in, the opening attack being taken up by Cox and Fitzgerald. Despite Cox taking 3 for 12 and Garland 6 for 22, "The Gong" made 122, mainly due to a good stand of 42 for the seventh wicket by McGuirk and McCarthy. Rodger Robertson was used in the faint hope that he would succeed in a similar manner to the previous game - however, no luck.

Uni. then batted and thanks to good batting by Rodger Robertson (66) and Barry Cox (38) we managed 174 all out. Wollongong gave nine bowlers a chance and thanks to some foolhardy batting most of their bowlers picked up a wicket. I take this opportunity to thank Wollongong for a most enjoyable game and we trust that this fixture is continued in the future.

U.N.S.W. 174 (R. Robertson 66, B. Cox 38) defeated WOLLONGONG 122 (P. McGuirk 28, C. Arthur 22, R. McCarthy 21; G. Garland 6-22, B. Cox 3-12).

U.N.S.W.C.C. vs WORLD XI (Village Green, 27-2-72)

Once again the World XI trotted out their veteran players, this year obviously a year older than before. To their credit the average age of 40 was maintained. Norm Gurney was the only new face that we had not seen on the Campus. However, it was clear from the shape of his cap, and in particular the peak, that he had thought he had come to participate in the World Series Baseball! Further, when play did begin and when the World XI were in the field, it was clear from his antics at point that not only had he been a good first grader but he also must have been a competent baseball coach.

The start of play had been delayed until approximately 12.30. This was a pity because on this occasion the whole of the World XI were at the ground at 11.00 o'clock and in fact had claimed victory because they outnumbered the University VI by 11 to 6. Because of the earlier rain, drastic mopping operations under the control of the World XI executive (at this stage they had not yet elected their captain) were necessary. In due course Michael Cooper won the toss for the World XI but David de Carvalho decided to bat! You see - Cooper had been defeated for the captaincy 1-0; never again will he abstain from voting.

The game was scheduled to be 36 overs each. The World XI failed to get their usual hurricane start from Scott-Orr and Everett. The University bowlers put on a magnificent display of time-wasting by insisting on rubbing the ball dry after each delivery. In the circumstances the average time of 8 minutes per over was good. This caused the captains to reduce the game to 30 overs each just at a time when the World XI were getting on top.

When the University team batted, Gurney again looked menacing as he began to wind up on the mound. Strangely the wicket now began to improve (Cooper obviously made the wrong decision when he won the toss) and runs flowed freely, despite the excellent bowling of Vic Emery who was not well supported by his agile 40 year olds. Further, the World XI had not taken into account the adverse psychological effects of Rick Wegner as umpire. Slowly the game began to slip out of their grasp and eventually did so.....

Thus sadly ended the four year reign of the World XI's supremacy. They now face a constitutional problem because the constitution provides that "The World XI will not play again if defeated." However, in all likelihood the rule will be changed or not adhered to.

On behalf of the World XI, may I express my thanks to the University Cricket Club for their generosity and patience. We all thoroughly enjoy this fixture which is our only annual fixture. The proof, as you know, is that more than half the team travel long distances in one day to play this game.

U.N.S.W. 8-161 (D. Wills 45, P. Heaney 35, G. Cole 29; V. Emery 3-43) defeated the WORLD XI 109 (S. de Carvalho 41(ret.), D. Scott-Orr 30; G. Cole 4-25, C. Samarasekera 2-7).

DOUBLE WICKET COMPETITION

(Sunday 12th March at David Phillips South)

Sunday March 12 dawned, a glorious, sunny, warm day. The weather gave no hint of impending disaster, namely the elimination of Epstein and Merrell, the heavily backed favourites, in the first round. This was even more of a shock following Tony Epstein's devastating bowling (2 wickets in 5 balls).

Dormon and Wegner showed great early form, but failed to build on it in later rounds.

Martel-Selby and Wills-Howe showed in the quarter-finals that they would be the teams to beat. Both these teams had comfortable wins in their respective semi-finals over Whalan-Goodwin and Dobell-Brown - Carse to proceed to the final.

Wills and Howe batted first after losing the toss. Martel and Selby became outright favourites after dismissing them for 13, due mainly to Warwick Selby's great bowling. However, not to be daunted, Wills and Howe struck back by taking the wicket of Selby cheaply, leaving Jock Martel four overs to score nine runs. Jock, having scored nearly 100 runs to date, played a rash, in fact suicidal shot off the long hop bowling of Dave Wills giving Wills and Howe victory by 6 runs.

It is hoped that this type of social game can be conducted more often next season and perhaps in the off-season.

Again, congratulations to Jack Howe and Dave Wills.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

I report to the Members of the University of New South Wales Cricket Club that I have examined the accounts and records of the Club for the year ended 31st May, 1972. My examination included such tests of the Club's records and such other auditing procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

The above Statement of Receipts and Payments and Bank Reconciliation represents a true and fair record of the Club's transactions for the year.
